Staff Spotlight

Our very own Jessica Holman, teacher from Rancho Cotate High School, has been named 1 of 5 finalists (out of 100+ entries) for the NBC Bay Area 2022 All-Star Teacher Award. This award recognizes middle and high school teachers in Northern and Central California for their dedication to their students in school and in the community. Jessica teaches Student Government and CTE classes. Her dedication has led her students in serving their community and has given them the ability to learn valuable leadership skills. This year alone, Jessica's ASB students have been in charge of raising 10,000 pounds of food to our local food pantry NOAH, raised $2,500.00 for local breast cancer patients, providing 65 presentations for Unity Week, and continued being the leading blood donor high school spanning from Sonoma to Mendocino Counties.

The winning teacher will receive $20,000 for their school! Yes! This means that if Jessica wins, Rancho Cotate High will receive $20,000. This is where YOU come in. Voting for your favorite finalist can be done online April 11 to June 6. The link will be posted in a future weekly update.

Congratulations Jessica! We appreciate your dedication to your students and to your community.
