CDS Code: 4973882-0000000

Allocation Year: 2023-24

1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

In the Spring, of the 2023-24 school year, Cotati-Rohnert Park Unified School District began implementing the beginning stages of Proposition 28 funding. Various equipment was purchased for several school sites through the use of Prop 28 funding, this process was to serve the needs of our student population. This purchased equipment will be used to help enhance student learning, and to help teachers with their specific teaching needs. A variety of specialists were brought in to provide high-quality coaching/instruction to students in our district. These specialists enhanced the overall quality of the arts programs our district is developing and building. The arts concentrated specialists that CRPUSD brought in this year, were primarily in the area of Arts and Drama. CRPUSD is currently looking into the process of hiring full-time educators, and classified arts employees to further build our VAPA programs. We are enthusiastic to be offering VAPA-based professional development opportunities for our educators in the upcoming future.
